

Volkswagen and Apple most active stocks in October

In October Tradegate Exchange's order book volume amounted to 5.9 billion Euros (October 2014: 4.4 billion). Besides trading in bonds, funds and exchange traded products (ETPs) Tradegate Exchange achieved a turnover in equities of 5.4 billion Euros and is the fastest growing exchange for private investors in Germany.

The following stocks were particularly popular with private investors in October (turnover in Euros):

German Stocks Top 5:

- 1) Volkswagen AG Vz, 418 million
- 2) Daimler AG, 225 million
- 3) K+S AG, 221 million
- 4) BASF SE, 165 million
- 5) Deutsche Telekom AG, 155 million

International Stocks Top 5:

- 1) Apple Inc., 239 million
- 2) Airbus Group SE, 84 million
- 3) OAO Gazprom ADR SP.2/RL 5, 79 million
- 4) Nestlé S.A., 65 million
- 5) Barrick Gold Corp., 55 million

About Tradegate Exchange

Tradegate Exchange is a stock exchange specialising in executing private investors' orders. Over 30 trading participants from Germany, Austria, France and Switzerland are currently connected and offer access to their customers from their own country and abroad. Around 3,800 equities, 1,500 ETPs, 1,600 bonds and 2,100 investment funds can be traded. Orders are usually executed in full. Tradegate Exchange does not charge any transaction fees. Tradegate provides investors with a continuous overview of what is happening on the market: real-time prices are available for the DAX, MDAX, SDAX and TecDAX indices and can also be accessed by smartphone using the Tradegate app. The app is free and has been downloaded more than 50,000 times. In January 2010 Tradegate Exchange was set up as a regulated market as defined in the MiFID. Managing directors are Thorsten Commichau and Oliver Szabries. Deutsche Börse AG has a 75 percent interest plus 1 share in Tradegate Exchange GmbH, the stock exchange operator of Tradegate Exchange. www.tradegate.de

Media contact:

Patrick Kalbhenn, Tel. +49-(0) 69-2 11-1 15 00